To whom it may concern,

This letter is to serve as confirmation that Justin David Bethea is a member in good standing with the IAPWE or International Association of Professional Writers & Editors and has provided sufficient evidence through his work to indicate that his abilities are at a sufficient level of proficiency such that he was accepted into our organization and continues to prove to be both a reliable and valuable resource to our organization.

This letter also serves as a recommendation of Justin, since we have found his skills and aptitude to be such that they would serve as a valuable resource to any other person or company that were to utilize his services.

Best regards,
